“Playing Jones Beach is not your usual know that right away when you hit tunnel, which runs underwater (and leads to the backstage area. The stage feels more like a home ship to me than a performance platform. When I’m up there I think about all the great people who that have come before and hope that one day I one day be thought of in that light. Jones Beach is not for the faint of heart. The venue is a real weather. When it is good, it’s a great place to be.”
