

Jay DeMarcus, Joe Don Rooney and Gary LeVox have a lot on the cookstove this year. The three members of Rascal Flatts just released the brand-new single “Rewind”; they are in the midst of a national radio tour; and they are finishing up a new album that is currently slated for release this summer. And on top of that, they’re once again hitting the road...

The Flatts guys today announced they will headline a North American concert trek that they’ve dubbed the Rewind Tour. The action starts May 16 in St. Louis, Missouri, with shows currently set through late September (see all the dates below). Further tour stops will be announced in the coming weeks, too.

Special guests on the tour this year are GRAMMY-winning artist Sheryl Crow and vocal trio Gloriana.

“Gary, Joe Don and I are really excited about 2014!” bassist DeMarcus said in a press statement. “Brand new music, and a brand new tour called, Rewind. We’re thrilled to have our good friend Sheryl Crow out with us. Expect some great musical moments and surprises! And we’re proud to have Gloriana opening. This is gonna be a show you don’t wanna miss!”
