

Two of the most successful and critically-acclaimed bands — Earth, Wind & Fire and Chicago — announced their North American co-headlining summer CHICAGO AND EARTH, WIND & FIRE – HEART AND SOUL TOUR 2015. The 25-date tour, will take the GRAMMY® Award-winning and multi-platinum selling groups through major U.S. cities including a stop at Jones Beach on August 16.

“One of the most exciting things about the show is when both bands perform at the end of the concert,” Lee Loughnane of Chicago said. “Having these 21 very talented musicians playing our greatest hits together puts the excitement level at a fever pitch! From the Heart of Chicago and the Soul of Earth, Wind & Fire, it is an unforgettable experience.”

“This is a real treat for fans of both groups to experience again the power-packed collaboration of Earth, Wind & Fire and Chicago,” Philip Bailey of Earth, Wind & Fire added. “We are looking forward to it ourselves – it has always been one of our favorite tours.”

The tour will provide unparalleled entertainment from two of America's most legendary musical groups, who have more than 200 million albums sold and 20 GRAMMY® nominations between them. Billboard hails that Chicago is one of "the most successful American rock band of all time, in terms of both albums and singles" and has "been able to fill arenas with satisfied fans" with music that has endured throughout time. Rolling Stone has described Earth, Wind & Fire as "a funk-fusion powerhouse that changed the sound and history of popular music."
