

Chris Rock recently announced the "Ego Death World Tour," including two Radio City shows in October, and now he revealed that he'll be in NY even sooner than that for five co-headlining shows with Kevin Hart Dubbed "ROCK HART: Only Headliners Allowed," the show will go down at Jones Beach on Thur, July 21, 2022 - tix: <http://CHRISROCK.jonesbeach.com>

“When Chris and I realized we were both going to be on tour this year we immediately knew we needed to do something special. We have been friends and mentors to each other for 20 years, but we have never shared a headlining stage together – until now!!! I cannot think of a better way to celebrate the return of live comedy than to co-headline a show with my brother Chris Rock. This is a major moment in comedy and one for the history books,” said Kevin Hart.

Lauded by peers and critics alike, Chris Rock is one of our generation’s strongest comedic voices. With a career spanning more than three decades, Rock has enjoyed ongoing success in both film and television as a comedian, actor, writer, producer and director. Rock recently wrapped production on the upcoming Higher Ground produced biopic, “Rustin ” and David O’Russell’s Untitled film. He is also set to direct an Untitled Chris Rock project in 2023.

Hailed as one of the highest-earning stand-up comedians of 2019 by Forbes, Hart’s most recent global comedy tour sold out over 100 arenas around the world, and sold over one million tickets worldwide in 2018 during his Irresponsible Tour. Hart continued to break records with his hometown stand-up performance at Philadelphia’s Lincoln Financial Field during his What Now Tour, marking the first time a comedian sold out an NFL stadium in Philadelphia. Recently, Kevin Hart announced his first major tour in four years Reality Check, heading to over 30 arenas in North America starting this Summer.
