“I’m really excited for this tour, for the fans, and as a fan of music myself. It’s gonna be trippy!” said Wiz Khalifa, who is preparing to release the first single off of his sophomore Atlantic

Records album, O.N.I.F.C., in the coming weeks. Joining Wiz and Mac on the “Under the Influence Tour” will be Taylor Gang General Chevy Woods, as well as TDE’s Kendrick Lamar and Schoolboy Q. The “Under the Influence of Music Tour” kicks off on July 26 at the Riverbend Music Center in Cincinnati with stops in Chicago, Toronto, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Detroit, and Pittsburgh, the city in which both artists hail from. “I’m excited to go on a tour like this because it brings a group of individuals together to move across the country as a unit to showcase great music,” adds Mac Miller. * Mac Miller is not confirmed for Jones Beach
